git / github

git-> 3 layer 1-Working directory

2-Stage index

3-Repo

any commit has a unique id command:

git add dir -> to add project git commit -m "message"-> to add new changes git status -> to show file wasent add git restore -> to delete changes git restore file name-> to delete changes in this file git show unique id -> show any thing in this id git diff -> show diffrence between files before changes and after git diff --staged -> show diffrence between staging area and repo git log --online --all -> to show all commit changes and show where is the head get rest HEAD-number of commit` -> to set head in this commit git bransh name of branch -> to make a bransh git switch name of another branch -> to switch between branch git checkout -b name of bransh -> to add and switch branch git branch -> to show all branche's git merge branch1 branch2 -> to merge between to branche's git chekout bransh -> if exist -> switched to this branch -> not exist -> show not exist git init -> to make folder(.git) have all changes git rm --cached -> if you want download file in staging area git checkout branch = git switch

.....

remote = github :

git remote add origin link of repo -> to related between project and repo git push origin branch -> to push all files in this branch to repo git fetch remote name branch name ->to relate to merge between tow branches git merge origin/branch name -> second action to merge git pull origin -> to merge in one action git push --set upstream origin branch -> to make push easy

.....

if exist repo ------(team work) git clone link of repo -> to make copy repo (any repo in github) in website-> can make fork by button -> fork -> crate fork